

CATALPA ESCAPE

Leeuwin Sail Training Ship

Expedition

Join a five-day voyage on the Leeuwin II to coincide with the historic re-enactment of the daring and successful “Catalpa Rescue” of escaped Fenian Convicts from Fremantle Gaol in 1876. Train to function as crew members in all aspects of sailing the Leeuwin, including climbing the masts to furl and unfurl sails, climbing out to the bowsprit, taking the helm, and standing watches including night watches.

This is a unique opportunity to take part in a training voyage on Leeuwin with all crew being Scout members.
